Email from concerned parent read at meeting with regards to school traffic and parking. Judy Parr also has this email.

Email from Judy Parr read at meeting – this will be a notice to be printed in the next school letter asking the wider school community to consider co-ordinating a school gala.

Carolyn Jackson sent email to F&F floating the idea of a school cookbook of which she would be happy to be the recipe collector. Discussed at meeting and agreed best idea would be to get Carolyn to do a cost analysis on this with the preference being a cheaper version, concentrating on recipes rather than fancy photos of the food. Ideas were chapters on foods from around the world to represent the many different cultures of our school.

Summary

Congratulations to Sue Hayward, our Junior BEES keeper, who entered our school into "Tui Products – Get Growing Competition", and won $50 worth of plants, soil and gardening tools for our school.

McCains Frozen Foods are running a competition at present where the school can win some more cool gardening things. Sherri Rhodes is collecting bar codes from McCains products. Check out your freezers and get these into school!!

Thanks to another PVS Great Parent, Steve Sinclair, for building 2 free standing tiered wooden planter boxes, for our BEES programme.

GENERAL BUSINESS

Chocolates Fundraiser

Class Liaisons have been asked to organise a class "Chocolate Liaison" by Friday 6th. The Chocolate Liaisons should then attend a meeting on Wednesday 11th August, 8.50am – 9.15am which will explain their role. They will then distribute the chocolates on Friday the 20th August.

PVS Board Request for School Gala Fundraising Event

Jonathan Burke made reference to Karyn Gradon and Tracy Orpens "How to Book" from our last school fair. This is in great detail and would be a fantastic guide for anyone willing to co-ordinate a gala.

Proposed date for a gala event would be March 2011.

Some other ideas discussed were a Guy Fawkes evening, (however, Ministry guidelines would not allow fireworks on school grounds), twilight fair, and an evening for the adults of the school community along the lines of a Black and White night, an Auction Night, or a Quiz Night.

General feeling from meeting is that we would all get behind a "large" school event and take on roles but no one was willing to commit to becoming the gala co-ordinator.

NEW BUSINESS

Jonathan Burke thanked Helen Page and her team for organising our new trees on the school "field mountain". Question was raised as to whether the school will be planting more trees for shade etc. and Helen advised that there are trees earmarked for the native area and school is looking for sponsorship on these. "Sponsor a Tree and Watch Your Money Grow"
